📖 CHAPTER PREVIEW

In this aliyah, Yaakov Avinu continues giving his holy brochos to his shevatim before his petirah, focusing here on Gad, Asher, Naftali, and Yosef HaTzaddik. Yaakov foretells the unique gvurah of Shevet Gad going out to war ahead of their brothers, the rich and blessed produce of Shevet Asher, and the swiftness and beautiful words of Shevet Naftali.

Yaakov then turns to Yosef HaTzaddik with an extraordinary brochah, highlighting Yosef's steadfastness and emunah when standing up against his brothers' jealousy and all the nisyonos of Mitzrayim. Yaakov bestows upon Yosef deep, overflowing brochos from Above and below, exceeding even the brochos Yaakov himself received from his own forefathers.

All introductions, summaries, and contextual notes are the editor's commentary and are not part of the original text.

CHAPTER SUMMARY

This aliyah covers the brochos of Yaakov to Gad, Asher, Naftali, and Yosef. Gad is blessed with strength in battle to successfully conquer and return from the front lines; Asher is blessed with rich, bountiful oil and royal delicacies; Naftali is likened to a swift hind delivering beautiful tidings. Finally, Yosef receives immense brochos of charm, strength against his attackers, and powerful blessings of heaven, the deep, and generations to come, crowning him among his brothers.

לְמַעֲשֶׂה WHAT TO TAKE HOME

When Yaakov Avinu bentches Yosef Hatzaddik, the pesukim recall all the yisurim and hatzaros Yosef went through. The בעלי חצים, his own brothers and the Egyptian captors, shot bitterness at him and tried to break him. Lichoira, we have to ask: why is Yaakov bringing up all this pain right now, at the moment of giving blessings? The Torah is coming to teach us a vital sevara for life. Yosef did not survive those nisyonos because he was just naturally tough. ותשב באיתן קשתו, his strength held firm davka because of מידי אביר יעקב, because he felt Hashem holding his hands, giving him the koach to stand strong.

Every single Yid goes through times where the yetzer hara or life's tzaras seem to shoot arrows at him from every direction. We get pulled down, we feel weakened, and we wonder how we can possibly stay strong. The chiddush of Yosef is that your strength does not come from your own human power. When you recognize that Hashem is right there with you, being mechazek your arms in the middle of the nisayon, you can withstand any storm and merit the highest brachos.

Today, when you hit a difficult moment or feel overwhelmed by a nisayon, pause for ten seconds and say out loud: Hashem, You are holding my hands right now, give me the koach to do the right thing.

When you feel weighed down by your mistakes, do not keep silent or try to hide them. Open your heart to Hashem in honest confession, and then immediately shift your focus to absolute trust in His forgiveness and constant protection, knowing that He never slumbers and is always guarding your steps.

Today, the moment you feel a heavy heart or a sense of spiritual distance, stop what you are doing, speak to Hashem in your own words to acknowledge your mistake, and then say out loud: 'My help is from Hashem, who forgives and guards my soul.'
