

תהלים • פרק קכ"ו

Plain Hebrew Text • Navy & Gold Edition

CHAPTER PREVIEW

In this beautiful Shir HaMa'alos, we sing of the ultimate Geulah, when Hashem will return us to Tzion and the long, painful galus will seem like nothing but a passing dream. We look forward to the day when our mouths will be filled with laughter and even the nations of the world will recognize the great wonders Hashem has done for us. The kapitel comforts us with the powerful assurance that all our tears and hard work in this bitter exile are like seeds planted in the ground, which will ultimately blossom into a joyous harvest of salvation. It is traditionally sung with great yearning before Birchas HaMazon on Shabbos and Yom Tov.

The overview is the editor's commentary and is not part of the original text.

שִׁיר הַמַּעֲלוֹת בְּשׁוּב יְהוָה אֶת־שִׁיבַת צִיּוֹן הָיִינוּ כְּחִלְמִים:

אִזּוּ יִמְלֵא שְׂחוֹק פִּינוּ וּלְשׁוֹנֵנוּ רִנָּה אִזּוּ יֹאמְרוּ בְּגוֹיִם הַגְדִּיל יְהוָה לַעֲשׂוֹת עִם־אֱלֹהִים:

הַגְדִּיל יְהוָה לַעֲשׂוֹת עִמָּנוּ הָיִינוּ שְׂמִיחִים:

שׁוֹבָה יְהוָה אֶת־שְׁבוֹתֵנוּ [שְׁבִיתֵנוּ] כַּאֲפִיקִים בְּנֶגֶב:

הַזֵּרְעִים בְּדִמְעָה בְּרִנָּה יִקְצְרוּ:

הַלֹּחַד יִלֵּךְ וּבִכְה נִשְׂא מִשְׁךְ־הָרָע בֹּא־יְבֹא בְּרִנָּה נִשְׂא אֶלְמִתּוֹ:
