CHAPTER PREVIEW

In this kapitel, Dovid HaMelech cries out over the painful state of the world where the wicked deny Hashem's hashgacha and corrupt their ways, even going so far as to oppress and consume Hashem's beloved nation. Hashem looks down from Shamayim to see if there is anyone searching for Him, yet He finds the mockers trying to shame the poor who put their trust in Hashem. Dovid HaMelech concludes with a heartfelt tefillah for the ultimate Yeshua to come out of Tzion, when Hashem will finally return His children from captivity, bringing boundless joy to Yaakov and Yisrael.
