CHAPTER PREVIEW

In this heartfelt kapitel, Dovid HaMelech cries out to Elokim from the very ends of the earth when his heart is faint, pleading for Hashem to lead him to a secure rock of safety. He recalls how Hashem has always been his shelter and strong tower against the enemy, and he yearns to dwell in Hashem's tent forever, finding refuge under the shadow of His wings. Dovid HaMelech prays for the life and years of the king to be prolonged in the presence of Elokim, guarded by chesed and emes, so that he may sing praises to Hashem's Name and fulfill his vows day after day.
